

- I. Opening Prayer
- II. Roll Call
 - A. Roll Call Question: What is your superpower?
- III. Approval of Minutes - 1 December 2021
- IV. Executive Announcements
 - A. Allan Njomo: Next week is walk the walk week and MLK Day. Take time to reflect on the significance of Martin Luther King. On Tuesday, we will have a keynote event on building a better community at Notre Dame and there will be a prayer in the main building. There is a lot of cool stuff to be involved with that week.
 - B. Matthew Bisner: On Tuesday, the doors open at 7:30 in Washington Hall.
- V. Nominations
 - A. Nomination for Director of Gender Relations
 1. Nomination confirmed
- VI. General Orders
- VII. New Business
 - A. Benjamin Erhardt: With so many students having gotten COVID over break, is the University refining what they mean as 90% vaccinated? Is that something that's being discussed or something you could ask?
 - B. Matthew Bisner: We have been trying to get in touch with the operations department and head administrators to get a meeting. We will bring that concern to them.

- C. Allan Njomo: We had that same situation last semester, I think they will take that into consideration.
 - D. Maclane Farrell: They are encouraging kids to still get it, regardless of whether you've had COVID.
 - E. Benjamin Erhardt: The concern I was hearing was that people waiting to get the booster will hold us back.
 - F. Matthew Bisner: I think by the end of this week we will get a better idea of the booster situation.
 - G. Maclane Farrell: Me and Abraham want to talk to Reslife about a gap day between move in and the first day of classes.
 - H. Mary Devoe: Fall semester classes in past years usually started on Tuesday. We started on Monday. Do you know why that's the case?
 - I. Matthew Bisner: It has to do with the amount of hours in a classroom to retain accreditation. Monday and Wednesday classes are otherwise less hours than Tuesday and Thursday. I know about it this semester because of the holiday.
- VIII. Announcements
- A. Kate McLaughlin: Acousticafe is 8:30-10:30 in Hagerty Family Cafe. Kenny Hoopla is coming. Tickets go on the Student Shop.
 - B. David Haungs: Petitioning has started for the Student Body President. Please do not endorse anybody.
- IX. Adjournment
