

STUDENT SENATE
Executive Summary
Wednesday January 13, 2016

- I. Invocation
 - A. Meeting was called to order at 6:00 PM
 - B. Jack Kill led invocation
- II. Roll Call
 - A. 2 were absent; 0 were tardy
- III. Approval of Minutes
 - A. Jack Kill moved to approve the minutes
 1. Kevin Coleman seconded
- IV. Officer Announcements
 - A. Mr. Bryan Ricketts, Student Body President
 1. Next monday is MLK day,
 - a) Thursday Jan. 14th: Art45 is coming to campus to make a mural of the photo of Fr. Ted and Martin Luther King Jr. They're painting tiles that will be available in NDH, SDH, LaFun and Mendoza. Paint one and invite your friends to do the same
 2. Walk the Walk starts Sunday night, all the dorm masses have moved to 10:30, and everyone who wants to can go to the reflecting pool for the march to and prayer service at the grotto
 - a) Monday: 11:30-1:30 no classes, there is a luncheon going on during that time. Senators get two tickets each to attend the one in the Jack, and Class Council members each get four. Make sure to find Bryan to get the tickets.
 - (1) Seamus Quilty: All your hall presidents have received an email about the walkover. They're setting up candles along the walk and may be looking for people to help with the set up
 - b) Tuesday: Center for Social Concerns Service Fair (6:00 at Geddes Hall)
 - c) Wednesday: Film Screening of Selma (8:00 at DPAC)
 - d) Thursday: Unity Summit (2:00 at Joyce Center) and Camille A. Brown & Dancers (7:00 at DPAC)
 - e) Friday: Space for Writing your Stories (3:30 at Snite Museum) and Camille A. Brown & Dancers (7:00 at DPAC)
 - f) Full list of events can be found at diversity.ND.edu
 3. Confirming a new Chief of Staff today, as we're going through the transition we will not be slowing down in any of our departments. . If you're looking for projects, talk to your department directors.
 - B. Ms. Nidia Ruelas, Student Body Vice President
 1. The conversation from the end of last semester will be picked up for next Senate
 2. If you're not getting the emails, please let Nidia know.
 - C. Mr. Dan Sehlhorst, Former Chief of Staff
 1. Dan is stepping down as Chief of Staff and will be changing roles to serve as more of an advisor. If you've had an in depth conversation with Dan and are worried about things getting dropped, feel free to reach out to make sure that everything will keep moving forward.
- V. Oaths of Office

- A. Sullivan Curry has been sworn in as the Morrissey Manor Senator for the remainder of the 2015-2016 term.

VI. Approvals

A. Chief of Staff

- 1. Kevin Coleman moved to consider the approval
 - a) JP Bruno seconded
- 2. Sibonay steps out
- 3. Motion to approve
 - a) Kevin Coleman moved to approve
 - b) JP Bruno seconded
- 4. Sibonay Shewit has been approved as Student Body Chief of Staff

VII. Announcements

- A. Jack Kill: I have given Onward presentations to some of the dorms. Talk to your dorm presidents to make sure that he/she schedules a time to have a presentation in their hall.
- B. Kathleen Rocks: Printers are fixed so they don't freeze and the queue has been extended from 6 to 12 hours
- C. Wilson Barrett: Keenan Revue is a month away. Add the TheKeenanRevue snapchat account, like them on Facebook, and follow on twitter.
 - 1. Ticket Distribution will be on the 28th at 5:00
- D. Louis Bertolotti: SUB updates
 - 1. SUB movies for this semester: Sakaria, the Martian, Bridge of Spies, Good Dinosaurs, and Bridge Shores
 - 2. Large event on January 30th, so please try to refrain from scheduling any events on that day.
- E. Eva Niklinska: JCC is giving away free bagels next week. There will also be a "welcome back" event for students returning from study abroad next Wednesday, January 20th so please spread the word.
- F. Zach: Officially entered election season
 - 1. Please keep in mind that as enumerated officials, we can't publically endorse any tickets, but we are still able to sign any petitions.

VIII. Adjournment

- A. Jack Kill moved to adjourn
 - 1. J.P. Seconded seconded
- B. meeting was adjourned at 6:21 PM