II. Presentations

- A. Amy O'Connor, CCC Chairman, presented an application for the Campus Fair to use the Collaboration Fund of over $2000.
There was a motion to approve the appeal for money.
The motion was seconded.
The motion passed unanimously.
- B. Jeremy Lao presented the Class of 2005 council. They have 8 committees and 60 volunteers in all. They are looking at a number of activities and fundraisers aimed at student involvement through the 2002-2003 school year.
- C. Dan Barabas, Off Campus Co-President briefly described their council set-up. He also has a lot of friends to help him.
- D. Jeremy Lao asked for some feedback on the idea of having community bikes for everyone's use. There would be about 50 bikes, and they would be painted a gross, obnoxious color. The general concern was if there was actually enough need for these bikes.

III. Old Business

- A. There was no Old Business.

IV. New Business

- A. There was no new business.

V. Announcements

A. Libby announced that the new door code for the office is 245. She also announced that we could sponsor The Show by giving it the rest of this year's budgeted money. The money would simply roll over if not used anyway.

There was a motion to give The Show the remaining money in the account.

The motion was seconded.

The motion passed unanimously at 6:31.

VI. Adjournment

The meeting was adjourned at 6:32 PM.

Respectfully Submitted,

Erik Smith
