II. Old Business

- A. We were unable to give away the remainder of our money last year to The Show, because we did not have any left. Sorry!
- B. There will be a presentation on the Campus Wide Fair next week.

III. New Business

- A. Amy O'Connor gave a short presentation regarding The Shirt. The Student Union gets 50% of the profit. The hype over the shirt has been dying down over the past couple of years, and we need to get students to buy it again. Hype it up, wear it, explain all about it, and help The Shirt sell. The following were possible advertising ideas:
 - Letter to the Editor
 - Ty Willingham holding up the shirt and saying "Wear me."
 - Mention the shirt at the pep rally.
 - Sell it in the dorms, St. Mary's, Holy Cross.
 - Have someone in the bookstore Friday and Saturday thanking people for buying it.
- B. Everyone has been invited to a dinner with Fr. Poorman in the Football Press Box. Please RSVP today if you plan on attending.
- C. Exec Cab has three prong attack plan this semester. It includes:
 - 1) Communication
 - 2) Leadership development
 - 3) Speakers

D. There are new tailgating and Alcohol policies in effect. You cannot have hard alcohol. If they find it, they will take it away from you right away. Do not draw undue attention to your room. As for tailgating, you need to register online at www.nd.edu/~tailgate. Registration ends Thursday at 6:00 AM. You then pick up your pass to hang in your car on Friday. The lots will be divided into an alcoholic section (hosts over 21) and a non-alcoholic section (under 21). The lots will be patrolled by NDSP, South Bend Police, Sheriff Police, State Police, and a few officers identified only by a small logo on their shirts. There can be no abusive drinking remember, and just be a responsible tailgater.

IV. Announcements

- A. Libby announced that the new door code for the office is 245.
- B. Amy O'Connor, CCC, gave a short presentation. The CCC is divided into 5 divisions. They allocate money to all clubs, and help with club advocacy.
- C. Matt Smith, Senior Class, gave a short presentation. They will hold a Senior Beach Fun Night on September 12 from 6-8. Alcohol will be available to those over 21. They also have a new website, and it is very nice.

V. Adjournment

The meeting was adjourned at 6:59 PM.

Respectfully Submitted,
