

Financial Education Order

Drafted on 25 October 1998

Be it ordered by the Student Senate that the Office of the President begin an investigation into the need for an educational program for students to prepare them for handling their own finances after graduation; and,

Be it further ordered by the Student Senate that if the Office of the President finds such a program necessary, that it work to implement one as soon as possible.

Submitted by the Student Senate Academic Affairs Committee

