

Resolution Regarding an In-Hall Dance Referendum

Whereas the state of the in-hall dance has been a topic of concern among the Student Senate Residence Life Committee,

Whereas in order to take further action regarding in-hall dances, the Residence Life Committee needs to know student opinion on the issue,

Whereas "A referendum is an instrument in which the Senate can gauge undergraduate student opinion on a certain issue by placing the issue in ballot form before the undergraduate student body."¹

Therefore Be It Resolved that the following referendum, or any variation deemed appropriate by the Psychology Department, be distributed to the student body.

1. Do you prefer the current dance policy requiring dances to be held outside the residence hall?

Yes No

2. Would you prefer having dances back in the residence hall?

Yes No

3. If returning dances to the halls included rules such as having to leave your room to go down to the dance at a specific time, and having to stay at the dance for a certain period of time, would you still prefer having dances in the halls?

Yes No
