 1. Red Zone Awareness Week (Wear Red Friday!!)

Please wear red on Friday for survivors and to make it known that this is a vulnerable time and we do not support it.
 2. Teach@ND Day Sponsored by the Kaneb Center (Friday, September 8th)
 - a) Aidan Rezner: You may have seen postings that say “scan here to send a note to your favorite teacher”. This indicative goes until this Friday. We ask that you express how grateful you are to a professor that made an impact in your life. Send a note or a few by this Friday.
 3. Email agenda items to arezner@nd.edu, hbrooke@nd.edu and mduoye10@nd.edu
 4. Proxy Form Available here

- a) Aidan Rezner: I just wanted everyone to know that you cannot have another voting member of Senate be your proxy.

V. General Orders

A. Aidan Rezner: I would like to move up the nominations and resolutions. That would be great. If someone could make a motion, that would be great, but we do need a motion. We also need unanimous consent for them. Especially for the J Council Committee, Koryn needs that. If we can do that for her, that would be great.

B. Nominations for Judicial Council Peer Advocacy

1. Libby Meister motions to move the Nominations for Judicial Council Peer Advocacy from New Business to General.
2. Questioning
 - a) Koryn Isa yields time to Thomas Musgrave, VP of Peer Advocacy.
 - b) Sam Godinez: Just to be clear, what is the difference between the Council for Peer Advocacy. It says it deals with undergraduate students accused of violating rules versus the Ethics Commission.
 - c) Thomas Musgrave: Peer Advocacy deals with students in the OCS process. So, it is more for disciplinary action through the Office of Community Standards. The Ethics commission is within the Student Union.

to dining halls and am working on a resolution. If you want to be involved and say you brought quesadillas back to your dorm, go for it.
