

I. Opening Prayer - Aidan Rezner

A. Aidan Rezner: Today I will be testing out recording Senate meetings to be posted on YouTube, but not for this week. I am trying to see if the sound will work. I am recording this meeting to test it out, but I will watch it back to see if the audio and everything works. Feel free to vote as you normally would.

B. Upcoming Senate Event

1. MiND Training - October 11th during Senate

- a) Aidan Rezner: I reached out with MSPS to schedule training. No need to take extra time. They will be coming here and it will be part of our normal Senate meeting and then we will continue onto our normal meeting. Next week might be a little longer, but it is super important that we get trained.

V. General Orders

A. SO2324-07: An Order to Clarify the Senate Bylaws

1. Questioning

2. Debate

3. Vote

- a) The order is passed.
- b) Aidan Rezner: The way that the bylaws are written means all of the Executive Cabinet members need to be here, which is never how things were done. This clarity helps a lot.

VI. New Business

A. SO2324-06: An Order to Amend Section IV of the Senate Bylaws

1. Aidan Rezner: We will be keeping this in New Business for the week, but take a look at it to be prepared for next week. This is considering the recording of Senate meetings.

VII. New Business to Be Heard by the Committee on the Constitution

A. SO2324-08: An Order to Amend Article XII of the Constitution

1. Aidan Rezner: Members of the Committee on the Constitution have heard about this already. I am putting it on your radar that they are looking into the validity of this. This is about Judicial Council election hearings. It is explaining the history, why the timeline has been that way and why it is being updated. They are doing a double check to make sure it is constitutional and then it will come to the Senate to be voted on. Any questions?
2. Sam Godinez: Where is the recording?
3. Aidan Rezner: Right behind you.
4. Sam Godinez: OK.
5. Aidan Rezner: That's what I will be using. It will mostly be recording me. I am seeing if the sound will be good enough, but i am not sure if they will be picking up what you guys are saying.
6. Ava DeCroix: Would it be helpful for you to have some conversation today to see if it can pickup what we say?
7. Aidan Rezner: I think you have talked enough, but, Clay, if you want to say something.
8. Clay Chauncey: What's up. How's everyone doing today?
9. Aidan Rezner: Thank you, I am looking into how the sound is.

  - F. Sam Godinez: I don't know about South, but I said they would be in NDH before SHD.
  - G. Hunter Brooke: Just a reminder to get GreeNDot trained by the end of semester.
  - H. Koryn Isa: If I am not GreeNDot trained, how do I do that?
  - I. Bridget Schippers: If you want to get trained, for this semester all of the slots are filled, which is every non football weekend. However, there are lots of no shows. So, tell your friends who don't show up to email GreeNDot and say they can't come to open up slots on the waiting list. To get on the waiting list, you can fill out the form and not select a training session because none are open and they will try to get you into a session.
  - J. Aidan Rezner: They really try to accommodate you, especially if you need to get trained. If you show up, they will try to get you a seat.
  - K. Hunter Brooke: That's how you get GreeNDot trained!
- IX. Adjournment
- A. The meeting is adjourned.
