This is to show appreciation for all that they do. We will have representatives at South Dining Hall tomorrow from 11 to 2. Feel free to stop by and sign your name to show appreciation and appreciation to them. They will really appreciate it.

- VII. Announcements

- A. Aidan Rezner: There is no senate next week because we have Thanksgiving Break. But there is a lot to come at the meeting after break.
- B. Sam Godinez: I should first start recapping that I Engaged with many conversations amongst all of you on the nights of Friday and Saturday. Thank you, you know who you are. Also, I decided to meet the Moreau Programming Coordinator, William C. Mattison III, today at 11am. He decided to give the approval for this resolution to go up. Again, a resolution is a call to action. This does not mean that we actually can enforce it because of course we cannot enforce anything as student leaders. But, as student leaders, we can recommend to them that we would prefer one thing or the other. In said meeting, I got to know his position more extensively on what a senior Moreau course could look like, including dividing by majors. So, if you are a finance major, you would have a specialized Moreau course. If you are a Poli Sci major, you would have a specialized Moreau course. Additionally, this one would be taught by faculty from said department, it would not be just instructors and it would reflect on the idea of a life well lived and how individuals can grow in the career fields that are usually designated to said major after Notre Dame. This one would be implemented, if it were to be implemented, in the fall semester because in the spring semester, according to him, seniors are usually more just wanting to get out and they do not care, really. For them to actually make Moreau useful, it will be in the Fall semester. We discussed a variety of topics, including, but not limited to, the stress that seniors can get and effectiveness of a First Year Moreau course. He will be potentially coming on November 29th. I sent him an invitation. He said that he will have to confirm with Father Gerry because he is new to Student Government and he might potentially come. I will please ask that nobody object to that resolution going up from New Business to General Orders, which I will do so on November 29th purely out of respect to our guest who will come and explain his position more in detail.

- C. Aidan Rezner: Sam, I will have to talk with you on timing because we have a few presentations before we get to General Orders and New Business, so he may want to come a little bit later on that time so that he doesn't have to sit through the Student Union presentations. I will talk with you about that, but thank you.
- D. Sam Godinez: I have an exam on December 6th, so let's not push it to December 6th.
- E. Aidan Rezner: Ok, we'll figure it out. We'll talk about timing.
- F. Paul Stoller: Seniors may have seen a very pink email, a Taylor Swift themed email, which I did not write. But, we are giving out Bundt cakes and you can create bracelets this Thursday the 16th. We are giving away 200 Bundt cakes. It's gonna be at Duncan for 3 hours from 11-2. If you are not a senior, you can probably still get one because we are not checking ids, but you shouldn't.
- G. Lila Condodina: SUB has Ocoutiscafe with all O'Niell performers. Usually in Acoutsiscafe we only have 3-4 performers, but now we have 6-7. It will be live-streamed as well. There will be a standup comedian from O'Niell. Next week we are doing pies and postcards before Thanksgiving break.
- H. Aleah Applin: FYCC has our first event, our concession stand this Saturday. If you could come and support, that would be great.

- I. Dorian Khoshyomm: Just to reiterate, if you can't attend Ocousticafe in person, make sure to join the livestream. It will be a great time.
- J. Bella Vasquez: PE's signature event: Silent Night, Silent Auction is happening on Friday from 1-3:30pm. Stop by and you can bid on really cool items.
- K. Avery Gahler: Badin is hosting the Badin Bake-off in Duncan from 4-6 on Friday. If anyone wants to sign up to provide baked goods or just show up in support proceeds go to St. Margaret's House.
- L. Daniel Jung: Tomorrow from 6-7 in 134 Duncan, there is an International Career Panel to talk about pursuing professional work. If you are an international student or have international friends or people in your residence halls who might be interested in this sort of thing, be sure to let them know.

VIII. Adjournment

- A. The meeting is adjourned.
