

To the Student Senate of the University of Notre Dame du Lac,

We respectfully request your consideration in confirming Eliza Smith to serve as a Co-Director of Diversity and Inclusion - Race and Ethnicity in the Executive Cabinet for the remainder of the 2022-2023 term.

Eliza Smith is a member of the class of 2023 from Atlanta, Georgia, living in Johnson Family Hall. Eliza is studying Psychology and Global Affairs (with a concentration in Peace Studies) with minors in Italian and Computing Digital Technologies (with a concentration in cyber safety and security). In addition to being a Co-Director of this department, Eliza is a member of the Department of Gender Relations – LGBTQ+ Advocacy, a Senior Fellow of Johnson Family Hall, and a Building Bridges Peer Mentor. Her previous Student Government and leadership experience includes serving as the Johnson Family Senator, a Hall Commissioner for two years, a member of several Student Government Departments (Student Life, Health and Well-being, University Policy, and Student Empowerment), a Sorin Scholars Committee Member, a two-time St. Andre Committee Co-Chair, and on the First Year Class Council. Eliza's impressive resume stands testament to her commitment to the Notre Dame Community.

As a Co-Director of Diversity and Inclusion - Race and Ethnicity, Eliza will faithfully execute the duties of her office, which include but are not limited to:

- Facilitating symbiotic relationships between cultural clubs and Student Government
- Assisting Multicultural Student Programs and Services (MSPS) to create a welcoming environment for all students on campus
- Assisting the Notre Dame community to orchestrate a successful Walk the Walk Week and MLK Day observance and celebration
- Work with other Departments to achieve cross-sectional goals

It is our great pleasure to welcome Eliza into leadership for this Department. Eliza continually inspires us through her unceasing passion, impressive organizational skills, and positive spirit. Her maturity, kindness, and drive make her a valuable leader on our team, and we look forward to supporting her for the remainder of this term.

Thank you for your time and consideration.

Respectfully submitted,

Patrick O. Lee
Student Body President

Sofie Stitt

Student Body Vice President