Members of the Student Senate:

It is with great pleasure that we present to you our nominees for Judicial Council's Election Committee. According to Section 13.3(c)(1) of the Constitution of the Undergraduate Student Body, "The Election Committee shall review all allegations of potential elections misconduct and all potential violations of elections regulations in accordance with Section 13.4." After a thorough application and interview process, we have selected the following individuals to serve as Election Committee members for the 2019-2020 academic year:

Tyler Ancona is a sophomore from Long Island, New York, who is currently living in Siegfried Hall. He studies Accountancy. On campus, Tyler is involved with the Student International Business Council's travel team and his hall's interhall sports teams. This summer he interned with the Gladowsky Capital Management Corporation.

Emily Chen is a sophomore from Philadelphia living in McGlenn Hall. She is majoring in Science Business. Emily has co-founded a nonprofit organization, volunteered in a hospice unit, and was a Coca-Cola Scholar semifinalist. In addition, Emily served on Election Committee for the 2018-2019 academic year.

Josie Donlon is a sophomore from Portland, Oregon who lives in Lyons Hall. She is an International Economics major with a concentration in Spanish. Josie has interned with the Portland City Commissioner's office during the summers of 2017 and 2018. This summer, she worked in Chicago's Office of the City Clerk. She also served on the 2018-2019 Election Committee.

Emily Hannon is a first-year student from North Carolina who lives in Howard Hall. She plans to major in Political Science. Emily has experience with Mock Trial in high school, served on her high school student government's Constitutional Club, and has worked year after year as a compassionate caregiver and peer educator to young children.

David Haungs is a first-year student from Upstate New York who is in Keough Hall. He is currently planning to study Chemistry and Political Science. David was awarded statewide recognition for Best Legal Writing and as Best Attorney while serving his high school's Youth and Government Club, and he was the President and Lead Attorney for his school's Mock Trial team.

Elizabeth Heldt is a first-year student from West Chester, Pennsylvania who currently lives in Farley Hall. She intends to major in Political Science and ACMS. Elizabeth was chosen to represent her high school at a United States Congressional leadership summit, served at a LINK Peer Leadership Retreat Program, and was a writer for her high school yearbook.

Sara Rani Reddy is a junior from Cincinnati, Ohio who currently resides in Ryan Hall. She is majoring in Chemistry with a French supplemental major. She has co-founded the Stitch Just In Time charity, served as editor of the Journal of Undergraduate Research, and is a member of the Indian Association of Notre Dame.

William Reid is a sophomore from Aurora, Ontario who lives in Keough Hall. He is a Finance and Piano Performance major. William has served as Student Council President at his high school, a Leader-In-Training at Camp Ekon in Ontario, and a Student Ambassador for international students during several Admitted Student Weekends.

Hayleigh Rockenback is a sophomore from Tucson, Arizona who is currently living in Pasquerilla East Hall. She is a Sociology major with a minor in the Hesburgh Program in Public Policy. She spent this past summer interning with the Desales Service Works in Camden, New Jersey as part of a Social Concerns SSLP. Hayleigh works in the University Writing Center, volunteers with La Casa de Amistad, and was a member of the Mariachi Club of Notre Dame last year.

Isabel Snee: Isabel is a sophomore from New Jersey who lives in Lewis Hall where she serves as a Chicks for Charity Co-Commissioner. She studies Neuroscience and Behavior. Isabel has conducted research at the Biomedical Research Institute of New Jersey through a two-week long intensive program, and played on the varsity tennis team for her high school. Isabel served on the Election Committee for the 2018-2019 academic year.

We are fully confident in each of their abilities to serve as honest, fair, and unbiased members of the Election Committee. It is with our unwavering endorsement that we present to you our nominees for the Election Committee.

Respectfully,

Halena Hadi

President, Judicial Council

Matthew Bisner

Vice President of Elections, Judicial Council
