VII. New Business

A. Aleah Applin motions to vote on items B-E in a block

1. Debate:

a) Matthew Amante: Aidan Rezner has asked for these items to not be voted in block.

b) Hunter Brooke: Based on my past three years in the Senate, it is a great honor to earn emeritus status, so it…

c) Sam Godinez: It is also precedent throughout all of these years to vote on each of these items of emeritus status individually out of respect and also to follow the precedent that has been laid down in years prior to this. I highly suggest that we vote on all of the emeritus status orders individually.

d) Diego: Furthermore since this honor is being bestowed upon individuals and not a group I believe we should place these votes individually.

2. Vote is not passed, each one will be voted on individually.
   a) The motion fails.

3. SS2425-01: A Resolution Bestowing Emeritus Status on Daniel Jung
   a) Dawson Kiser: I would just like to say that…
   b) Maeve and assorted voices: Dawson you have to read it

Questioning
   a) Sam Godinez: Okay so Daniel thank you so much for your work but I would like to ask you one question.
   b) Maeve Miller: You cannot question Daniel on this
   c) Sam Godinez: I would like to ask Dawson, Maeve, and Allison how the subsidized uber resolution is going. Something that they campaigned on last year.
   d) Maeve Miller: I would like to remind us all that we can yield our time to non serving members of the senate
   e) Dawson yields time to Daniel Jung.
   f) Daniel Jung: Anna dray, director of u policy, worked really hard. We met with Mike Seamon and there are a lot of risks there. It is a work in progress we didn’t get as far along as we wanted to but it is something we worked really hard on and are really passionate about.

g) Matthew Amante yields time to Aidan Rezner

h) Aidan Rezner: I would like to share some remarks about Aiden. He spent so many sleepless nights working for the student body. He embodies what it means to be president and I am so proud of the amazing work that he put in and took this role with the utmost seriousness, he really deserves this in every capacity.

i) Aleah Applin yields her time to Collette Doyle.

j) Collette Doyle: As someone who worked closely with Daniel over this past year, I can say that he sacrificed so much to make sure that everything gets done. He cared so much about every single individual on his team and he did not have to care as much as he did but I think this is truly emblematic of what a great leader he is.

k) Hunter Brooke: A very long time ago, I ran against both Daniel and Aidan and I have since said that I would not have wanted to lose that election to anyone else. It was an honor and a privilege to work with him.

4. SS2425-02: A Resolution Bestowing Emeritus Status on Aidan Rezner

a) Questioning
b) Debate

(1) Sam Godinez: I was hoping I could echo some nice words about Aidan Rezner. He really went above and beyond in his capacity as student body vice president. I worked with him on two initiatives and he went far beyond his capacity as Vice President. There is not another who could fill this role better. I truly believe this should be unanimous.

(2) Matthew Amante: I know Aiden well from his time in the Senate. He is a bowlark of professionalism. There were a large number of controversial issues on the senate floor last year, but he made sure nothing boiled over, there is no one more deserving.

(3) Dawson yields time to Daniel Jung.

(4) Daniel Jung: I first met Aidan on welcome weekend, and there was no one else I would rather work with as a VP, there is no person more deserving of this honor.

(5) Aleah Applin yields time to Collette Doyle

(6) Collette Doyle: Aiden is one who never gets overwhelmed by anything, and he did an incredible job, he served as such a strong post for us and he is the true epitome of a strong leader. He is a phenomenal leader, there is no one more deserving.
(7) Maeve Miller: I could not have asked for a better leader. He went above and beyond to make sure we had a smooth transition.

(8) Hunter Brooke: I have great respect for the way Aidan went about his job, he is so compassionate towards everyone and always uplifted others. I have an immense respect for him and I will miss him dearly in this role.

5. SS2425-03: A Resolution Bestowing Emeritus Status on Collette Doyle

a) Questioning

b) Debate

(1) Matthew Amante: I would like to yield my time to Aidan.

(2) Aidan Rezler: Nothing would have run without Collette. Every program we put on was the work of her. She cared so deeply about everyone’s success and was always a listening ear whenever there was any struggle. She was tailor made for this role and as a person. It was an honor to work with her. She deserves it more than any of us.

(3) Dawson Kiser: I yield my time to Daniel.

(4) Daniel Jung: She is always there for you and is willing to go the extra mile for anyone who needs it. I feel blessed to know Collette, she is a fantastic person. No one is more deserving.

(5) Allison O’Connor: Not to repeat what others have said but Collette has been my mentor this year. She was at every single event, no matter what time it was. I could not imagine a better role model. I would like to cede the rest of my time to Isabella.

(6) Isabella Tardio: Hi, I am the previous year’s student union secretary. I have known Collette since my freshman year and she is an absolutely fantastic person who truly deserves this award.

(7) Madison Denchfield: makes a friendly amendment to change “his” to “her”. Amendment is passed.

c) Vote

(1) The vote is passed.

6. SS2425-04: A Resolution Bestowing Emeritus Status on Koryn Isa

a) Questioning

b) Debate

(1) Hunter Brooke: I just wanted to echo what I already wrote,

Koryn was an incredible person to work for. She was there for three years, longer than anyone else. I would also like to yield my time to Thomas and Ryn.

(2) Thomas: I would like to harp on her unwavering kindness through the stressfulness of her job. She acted with kindness to every person that she met. Koryn is always a shining light that we can all emulate. She taught us all a lot about this university as a whole. There is no one more deserving.

(3) Ryn: Koryn leaves behind her huge shoes. She is incredibly kind and she works incredibly hard. I wholeheartedly recommend emeritus status.

(4) Aleah Applin: Koryn knows how to lay down the law which has taught me so much about leadership. She is more than worthy of this honor.

(5) Dawson Kiser: I have had the pleasure of working with Koryn. This is a thankless job but she made sure everything went as smoothly as possible and it was incredible to see first hand.

(6) Madison Denchfield: I have nothing but nice things to say about her. She did a remarkable job.

(7) Hunter Brooke: I yield my time to Daniel

(8) Daniel Jung: She was the perfect Judicial Council President. She is really really fantastic.

7. SO2425-01: An Order To Extend the Judicial Council Nomination

Deadline

a) Questioning

(1) John Knott: What is the precedent in events like this? Do you usually extend the deadline to later?

(2) Hunter Brooke: We have never encountered issues due to OIT before.

(3) Sam Godinez: Okay so if this passes you will be taking this role as parliamentarian…My question is why cant former judicial council officers in an acting position until the application the roles are filled later.

(4) Hunter Brooke: The former Judicial council member has reapplied to I figured for the sake of impartiality, giving the role to someone who cannot actually serve for the full term because she is graduating would be best.

(5) Laura Clements: Is it that you have received no application for the parliamentarian or do you just need more time.

(6) Hunter Brooke: yes

(7) Laura Clements: So the extension gives you more time?

(8) Hunter Brooke: yes

(9) Ian Schowe: Who is going to be the acting director of Peer advocacy because I see that that position is not filled.
(10) Hunter Brooke: I felt that the likelihood of a peer advocacy event happening in the short time of this extension would be unlikely, but I have spoken with Thomas and he will take up any cases that appear.

(2) Hunter Brooke: yes

b) Debate
(1) Sam Godinez: I would like to introduce an amendment. I would like the ending on the order section to read as “publicly available on the student government youtube account within one week of the meeting’s conclusion”.
