Nevin Hall <nfhall@uchicago.edu> Mar 14, 2024, 1:00 AM to CCC, me

Anna,

I chair the elections committee (E&R) within UChicago's Undergraduate Student Government (USG), so I'm not the primary financial contact (we don't have a controller or any centralized financial control, unlike y'all), but I'll do my best to answer your question. We do have a student activities fee, which is levied at $500 a quarter (so $1500 annually), but is abated in the event of financial aid, etc. The amount of this fee changes with some regularity, however, so while it is $500 at present, that sum may go up next academic year. As you may be aware, the university is facing rather significant financial issues, so the student activity fee may increase. For benchmarking purposes, though, $500 is the figure.

NOTE: We benchmarked against annual Student Activity Fees (given that the University of Notre Dame's is $95 per year), so we used the annual figure of $1500 rather than the quarterly figure of $500 in our calculations.

APPENDIX B

This figure is an approximation. It was calculated by multiplying the 9,760 undergraduate students enrolled at the University of Pennsylvania in Fall 2022[7] by the 2022-2023 General Services Fee levied upon all undergraduates of $5,676.[8] The product of this calculation is $55,397,760. The University of Pennsylvania's Student Registration and Financial Services explains that the money from this General Services Fee is allocated to a variety of "non-instructional student support services", specifically citing "counseling and wellness, multicultural resource centers, student activities, recreation and fitness, career services, learning support, and much more" as relevant uses.

In FY 2022-2023, The Undergraduate Assembly (UA) of the University of Pennsylvania (UPenn) distributed $2,922,222 to the UPenn undergraduate clubs and to the internal operating and event budgets for the branches of the UA.[9] In FY 2023-2024, The UA distributed $3,024,071 to the UPenn undergraduate clubs and to the internal operating and event budgets for the branches of the UA.[10]

If the money collected via the Fall 2022 enrollment statistics and Fall 2022 General Services fee was allocated through 2022-2023 UA Annual Budget Allocation, then the share of the General Services Fee allocated to the UA and UPenn undergraduate clubs corresponds to $299.41 per student ($\frac{$2,922,222}{$55,397,760} \times $5676 = $299.41$). If the money collected via the Fall 2022 enrollment statistics and Fall 2022 General Services fee was allocated through 2023-2024 UA Annual Budget Allocation, then the share of the General Services Fee allocated to the UA and UPenn undergraduate clubs corresponds to $309.84 per student ($\frac{$3,024,071}{$55,397,760} \times $5676 = $309.84$). The more conservative estimate, rounded to $300 per student per year, was employed in this benchmarking.

[7] As per "University of Pennsylvania: Common Data Set 2022-2023," published by the University of Pennsylvania.
[8] As per "Undergraduate Tuition and Fees," published by Student Registration and Financial Services, University of Pennsylvania.
[9] As per "2022-2023 UA Annual Budget Allocation," published by the Undergraduate Assembly Budget Committee, University of Pennsylvania.

Docket # SS0102-17

Resolution on Student Activity Fee Increase

WHEREAS, in its current status, the Student Activity Fee no longer provides adequate funding for the Student Union;

WHEREAS, both the annual total percent increase in the cost of attendance and the annual inflation rates currently outpace Student Activity Fee increases;

WHEREAS, due to an increasing number of groups within the Student Union, as well as such recent creations as the Rector Fund, drawing from the pool of funds that support the Student Union and Tbe Shirt Charity;

WHEREAS, the solvency of The Shirt Project, which also provides Student Union funding, is uncertain due to independent factors such as quality of design, color, the economy, and team performance;

WHEREAS, each year the requests for funding allocation by groups within the Student Union greatly exceed the amount available;

WHEREAS, due to past financial over expenditures, the Student Union is currently in violation of Student Union Fiscal Policy, Section VIII: Carry-Forward Account Guidelines, 6. "The Carry-Forward Account shall never be allowed to fall below $15,000," and an increase in the Student Activity Fee shall permit the establishment of this balance;

WHEREAS, an increase in the Student Activity will afford the Student Union the ability to increase and improve activities across the board, tailoring them in response to the dynamic student body, benefiting all;

THEREFORE BE IT RESOLVED, that beginning in the 2002-2003 school year, the Student Activity Fee be increased by $10 (from $65) to $75;

THEREFORE BE IT FURTHER RESOLVED, that beginning in the 2004-2005 school year, the Student Activity Fee be increased by $5 every other school year. In the 2012-2013 school year, at which time the Student Activity Fee shall total $100, the Student Activities Office and the Senate Oversight Committee shall review this policy to ensure that it remains adequate and in accordance with the state of the University of Notre Dame Student Union. The results of this review shall be presented to the Senate prior to December 1, 2012.

NOTRE DAME 2012-2013 TUITION & FEES

VANDERBILT ACFEE FACT SHEET

ACFEE FACT SHEET

Activity and Recreation Fee

Each student and professional at Vanderbilt pays an Activity and Recreation Fee every semester

	Fall 2015	Spring 2016	AY 2015-2016 Total	Summer 2016
Undergraduates	$546	$546	$1,092	$75
Graduates	$215	$215	$430	$75
Professionals	$215	$215	$430	$75

The Activity and Recreation Fee get split into two separate pots: The Student Activity Fee and the Student Recreation Fee

The Student Activity Fee

The Student Activity Fee gets distributed into several different areas: Vanderbilt Student Communications, Inc. (all Student media except for the Vanderbilt Hustler), programs for the Office of the Dean of Students, Student Athletics Programs, and also AcFee (which will be discussed later). The purpose of the Student Activity Fee is to subsidize student events on campus, grants undergraduates seats at home football, basketball, and other athletic events, and allows student organizations to use various Vanderbilt facilities.

Undergraduates pay $288 per semester and Graduate and Professional Students pay $80 per semester

The Committee

The AcFee Committee is a branch under VSG that runs independently of VSG as a whole and is heavily monitored by the Dean of Students Office. The AcFee Committee distributes approximately $1.8 million each year to student organizations in six different categories: Arts, Cultural, Programming, Religious, Service, and Special Interest. The overall AcFee Committee is chaired by the AcFee Chair and the AcFee Comptroller.

The responsibilities of the AcFee Chair are:

1. Preside over all AcFee Committee meetings
2. Be a non-voting member, except in the event of a tie
3. Solicit applications from the student body to fill such positions as are allocated to them

The duties of the AcFee Comptroller are:

1. Financially advise student organizations
2. Facilitating better communications between the AcFee Committee and student organizations
3. Actively working to improve the AcFee process in conjunction with the AcFee Chair
