AN ORDER TO EXTEND THE COMMITTEE ON THE CONSTITUTION

Whereas, upon the conclusion of the 2024-2025 Senate term, the concurrent term of the Committee on the Constitution expired, leaving the Student Senate without a forum to discuss Constitutional changes;

Whereas, the Committee on the Constitution serves as a valuable forum for the thorough discussion of Constitutional changes;

Whereas, the Committee offers recommendations to the Senate and authors memos for review, to advise and inform the Senate on Constitutional reform;

Whereas, the Committee served as a means of gaining input from members of the student body due to the inclusion of at-large members;

Whereas, per Section VII(1) of the Bylaws of the Student Senate, “The Committee on the Constitution shall monitor the transition, internal review, and overall process of the Student Union as outlined in this Constitution and make appropriate recommendations to the full Student Senate;”

Whereas, the Committee is traditionally formed at the beginning of the Fall semester, with Senators interested in serving on the Committee required to stand for election for such a position by September first, per Section VII(3) of the Bylaws of the Student Senate;

Whereas, to ensure continued thorough review of Constitutional reform, the Senate should extend the term of the current Committee of the Constitution until the summer recess; therefore, be it

Ordered by the Student Senate of the University of Notre Dame du Lac,

That all 2024-2025 at-large and ex officio members of the Committee on the Constitution shall be appointed to continue to serve on the Committee on the Constitution for the remainder of the academic semester, at the discretion of the Student Union Parliamentarian.

It is so ordered.
