IV. Executive Announcements

A. Senate Coffee Chats

a. Riley Evers: Once again, Senate Coffee Chats are happening over the next couple days. It's just a chance for us to chat, see what you are interested in, and see how we can help you.

B. Prayer Form

a. Riley Evers: The prayer form is linked again on the agenda. It would be awesome if you guys fill that out if you want to lead prayer. All faith traditions are more than welcome. You can make up a prayer, Our Father, Hail Mary, whatever you want to do.

C. GreeNDot

a. Kyle Lauckner: Some of you may have received an email from Judicial Council that is regarding GreeNDot. There is a student government only GreeNDot training September 8, I want to say from 5:30 to 8 in 107 O'Shag if my memory serves me. This is a very select event, so consider yourselves very honored by this select opportunity to attend it. If you cannot attend it, please go attend another GreeNDot training. I have an updating list of who is and who is not eligible. So, it would be great to see just like all members of Senate be green so that we could be just all be one giant green dot and not a red dot.

b. Riley Evers: We don't want to send anyone to the ethics council, so please get GreeNDot trained.

V. General Orders

2. Debate
3. Vote
    a) This passes.

B. An Order To Better Align Constitutional Campus Safety Summit Requirements With Current Practice

1. Questioning
    a) Max Barton: I am curious to know why it is, if we know, that the terms for when the meeting is to take place at specific times, if we know why that was initially put in place? Because it feels to me like if there was a specific reason, we might not want to change it.
    b) Elijah Jones: We do not know exactly why these dates are hardlined in the Constitution. But what we found in recent years is that these dates are pretty hard to follow because we come back like the third or fourth week of August. This year, I only had three days to try to schedule this with Fr. Gerry and Mike Seamon and Chief Shibata and their entire team. So, we don't know why it is like this, but we're trying to give ourselves more time to schedule these meetings.

2. Debate
3. Vote
    a) This passes.

A. Kieran Morrissey: The 101st annual Morrissey Manor takes place this Sunday. It is on South Quad for the Wisconsin game. We'll have all our freshmen going to all your dorms and taking your futons down if you'd like. We're sponsored by Coca-Cola this year. We have about $5,000 of Coke out there. Should be a great time. All are welcome.

B. Drew Bush: Duncan Hall's annual ND110 is happening next Wednesday to commemorate the responders who responded to the 9/11 terrorist attack and raise money for Heart 9/11. I encourage everyone to get out and support this cause.
