Members of the Student Senate:

It is our great honor to present to you our nominees for At-Large membership on the Committee on the Constitution for the 2026–2027 term. According to Section VII(1) of the Senate Bylaws, “The Committee on the Constitution shall monitor the transition, internal review, and overall process of the Student Union as outlined in this Constitution and make appropriate recommendations to the full Student Senate.” After a thorough application and interview process, we have selected the following individuals to serve as members of the Committee on the Constitution for the 2026-2027 academic year:

Marco Battocchio

Sydney Moore

Hannah Laura Schuchhardt

Noah Shoman

Shawn Edmondson

Meredith Sullivan

Audrey Chen

These nominees represent a highly diverse and qualified cohort of individuals with distinct academic backgrounds, experiences, and worldviews. Bringing prior involvement in student policy organizations, governance bodies, legal research, and campus leadership, they possess a wealth of knowledge that will prove vital in evaluating complex constitutional matters. Beyond our campus, their relevant experiences range from interning in government offices and policy research groups to holding leadership roles in high school student government and local civic initiatives.

Most crucially, each nominee has demonstrated a sophisticated understanding of constitutional analysis, a commitment to vigorous yet respectful debate, and an earnest desire to strengthen the Student Union for the benefit of the student body. We have unwavering confidence in their ability to analyze, debate, and thoughtfully recommend constitutional amendments to the Student Senate. We present these nominees to you with resolute endorsement.

Respectfully,

Monica Sayler

President, Judicial Council

Kyle Lauckner

Student Union Parliamentarian, Judicial Council
